Chapter 1 by James Sawczynszyn

Standing alone, the king prepares for his appearance at the grand event within the Bucksbridge castle known as the "Serpent Trials"

Chapter 2 by Ray Wise

Hi servants whispered as they danced around the king's chamber gathering his regalia. It was the first of his sons - Maximillion who's turn it was to face the Serpent. The festival was over - last nights meal bulged the king's waist as Jacco (the head servant) went about the final business of tying up the royal robes.

With a light head and heavy legs he rose slowly to his feet, "Onward!" he mumbled and started to walk towards the door...
